AVCA Memorial Conference Scholarship

The AVCA Memorial Conference Scholarship is an affordability scholarship opportunity. The purpose of the scholarship is to help AVCA Certified Member Doctors without adequate funding to attend the annual conference and obtain the professional development that the AVCA Annual Conference provides.

This scholarship is made possible by individual contributions to honor AVCA doctors, individuals, and Sharon L. Willoughby Blake, DVM, DC, founder of the American Veterinary Chiropractic Association and modern day animal chiropractic.

An affordability scholarship will be awarded and will provide a Conference Registration to an AVCA Certified Member Doctor who faces financial limitations.

Scholarship is based on the financial need, membership status, certification status, contributions to the profession, and potential to give back to the profession. Scholarship is awarded to cover only the basic conference registration fee. Scholars are responsible for their travel, food, lodging and any costs associated with field trips, labs/workshops, banquet, guest tickets, and merchandise.
